"They call me Weeping Willow. But I'm a happy willow tree and the light that shines within me glows for all the world to see!"

What started as a small, inspired poem about embracing inner beauty has been transformed into a beautiful children's book, Willow. With bright, colorful illustrations, Willow and her whimsical friends invite readers to open their hearts to her message of love. This short, delightful children's book is the perfect addition to any child's library.

Ava Gustafson lives in Spooner with her husband and her four legged furry friends. It is her dream for her books to branch out into many hands and homes, touching people's lives and helping develop children's hearts.

"Could they think I'm sad not having fruit to pick or see? Look closer now, there's fruit inside. It grows in you and me."

Ava will read from "Willow." More information is at www.thewillowseries.com.

Her book will be available for purchase and signing.

Refreshments provided by Friends of the Larsen Family Public Library.
